Pineapple Upside Down Cake: going back in time, reminiscing about the 60's when my mom used to make this cake. The perfect cake for a brunch or if you just want something light, without frosting. This cake starts with organic brown sugar, pineapple slices and dark sweet cherries in the bottom of a 10" cake pan. The sponge cake batter is poured on top, then baked. After baking, the cake is turned out of the pan...the bottom now becomes the top of the cake, showing off the beautiful pineapple slices and dark sweet cherries. Light and delicious! Gluten/dairy/soy/ nut/corn/GMO free...contains eggs, but also available egg free.
